NEW COUNCIL WILL NOT TAKE OFFICE UNTIL THIS EVENING

Democratic Council Would Not Give Up Seats Until Midnight.

City Will Extend I. & C. Ditch— Herkless Contract Cancelled —Other Business.

The new Republican city council was not permitted to take its seat at last night's meeting, it having been decided that the terms of the old councilmen did not expire until midnight. A conference between various attorneys, Mayor Hall and the old and new council was held prior to the meeting and it was decided that, for fear that should the new council take office and transact business the transactions might be illegal, Mayor Hall would, today, issue a call for the new council which should convene tonight at which time proper organization will be had. It is understood that some of the city employees are to lose their jobs under the new administration, and there is some question as to whether or not a new council, convened in special session, will have power to discharge city employees. If it has not the power, then some Democratic city employees will hold their jobs at least two weeks longer. The old council is dying game and was determined to hold on to the last.

Today, Mayor Hall issued his call for tonight's meeting of the new council which will be called to order promptly at 7:30 o'clock.

Nothing but the regular business was transacted at last night's meeting of the old council. A large number of citizens were in attendance. Mayor Hall presided, and all of the old councilmen were present.

City Clerk Lakin read the minutes of the last regular meeting of April 17th, and adjourned meeting of April 24th. There were 43 pages of minutes, the longest, perhaps ever read by any Rushville city clerk. The reading of the minutes occupied considerable time.

The petition filed by the members of the city school board, asking permission to construct the sidewalk on the north side of Sixth street, along the ground occupied by the First ward school building, and that it be not left for diversion. Upon motion of Mr. Brann, the petition was granted by a unanimous vote.

The School Board's petition asking council to fix the salary of the Board for the past year then came up for consideration. Mr. Brann moved that each member of the school board be paid $75 per year as in the past. The motion carried by a unanimous vote.

Upon motion of Mr. Brann, William Wollung was granted permission to construct a cellar drain from his residence on West Tenth street, to the ditch in the city park.

Marshal Craig's report showing the collection of $5 street and show license during the month of April was received and filed on motion of Mr. Brann.

City Treasurer Spivey's report for April was received and referred to the finance committee. The report showed total receipts for the month, including the balance of $11,322.60 on hands April 1st, to be $19,243.53, the disbursements for the month, charged to the various funds, to be $4,032.24 and the balance on hands, May 1st, to be $15,211.29. The report showed a balance, May 1st, of $2753.87 in the street improvement fund; $4949.47, in the water and light fund and $7507.95 in the general fund.

Patrick Barrett, street commissioner, reported the collection of $55.35 for the sale of dirt. The report was received and placed on file upon motion of Mr. Brann.

Dr. W. C. Smith tendered his resignation as city health officer and it was accepted on motion of Mr. Brann.

Oliver Ong, superintendent of the water and light plant, submitted his report for April, and it was referred to the finance committee, on motion of Mr. Smith. The report showed the total receipts for the month to be $3226.26, and the total disbursements to be $870.18, leaving a profit of $2356.08. Attached to the report were figures on the year's business at the plant. For the year ending April 30th, 1906, the total receipts were $11,229.25; the total expense was $10,634.98, leaving a credit of $594.27 for the year.

George R. Kelley, city civil engineer and Herkless Bros. reported that the contract for the improvement of Tenth street was invalid, and asked that it be cancelled for the reason that it would interfere with the sale of bonds, issued for the improvement. The contract was cancelled on motion of Mr. Brann.

Owen L. Carr was granted the use of part of Fifth and Perkins streets, along his lot, for the placing of building material while his new residence is being erected.

It was reported that the I. & C. traction company was to pay for the drain at Fifth and Morgan streets to be constructed by the city. The matter of extending the ditch from the I. & C. power house came up for consideration. Mr. Brann moved that City Clerk Lakin order tile to conform in size with the tile already laid in the ditch, and that the matter of completing the ditch over First street be placed in the hands of the street committee under the supervision of the committee and the city engineer, and to be done as soon as possible. The motion carried.

COUPLE WANTED TO GET MARRIED

Strange Pair Returns to Indianapolis After Unsuccessful Attempt.

A pair of strangers giving their residence as Indianapolis, came to this city on the 1 o'clock car yesterday afternoon ostensibly to get married. They approached John Vanata and asked him to go to the clerk's office with them and swear that they were residents of Rush county. He refused, however, and they approached John F. Joyce, who also refused to perjure himself for their sake. The couple then gave up the attempt and returned to Indianapolis on the 2 o'clock car.

The man appeared to be about 35 or 40 years of age. He had brown hair and appeared to weigh at least 185 pounds. He wore a brown checked suit. The girl was about 17 years of age, tall and slender, with dark hair and appeared to weigh about 120 pounds. She wore a black dress. Her would-be husband called her "Mert."

Neither would divulge their names. The man had two Marion county marriage blanks, showing that an attempt to get a license there had failed. The pair appeared to be elopers. The man said the girl's parents were well-to-do and that he wished to get the girl back to Indianapolis by night. He wanted the wedding kept secret for six months.

Joyce told the couple to go to Hamilton and get married, but the man did not have money enough to go that far.

SPANISH WAR AND PENSION CLAIMS

There are now more Spanish war veterans on the pension roll than the entire number of Shafter's army in Cuba. In the whole war there were 698 deaths from wounds, 6,610 from all causes including diseases, and 9,378 casualties of every description. There have already been filed 69,687 applications for pensions on account of that war—more than two-thirds as many as were filed in the same length of time after the civil war, in which over seven times as many men fought fifteen times as long, with the loss of over fifty times as many lives.

DAMAGE CASE STILL ON TRIAL

Several Witnesses Examined Today In Hoagland-Big Four Case.

Witnesses Testify That Morning Was Foggy One—The Arguments.

Progress is slow in the Hoagland-Big Four $10,000 damage suit now on trial in the circuit court, and it is now believed that the case will hardly go to the jury tomorrow. The plaintiff is expected to rest this evening and the defense will probably finish tomorrow.

The arguments will require considerable time. Ben L. Smith and Attorney Cowgill will argue for the defendant, while Attorneys Beckett and Morgan will argue for the plaintiff.

Several witnesses were examined today. Among them were W. E. Swain, Jack Kardin, Jesse Hiatt, Enoch Spurgeon and George W. Yaw. Most of these witnesses testified concerning the distances along the track and street crossing, the view up and down the track from the point where the accident occurred, and the condition of the weather at the time. All of them said that the morning was a foggy one and that it was difficult to see for any considerable distance.

Miss Ada Matthews, daughter of Jeremiah Matthews, the man who was killed in the accident testified, and Clayton Matthews, the son, who was in the buggy and sustained a broken leg in the smashup, told of the manner in which it occurred. All of the witnesses were put through a rigid cross examination by the attorneys for the defendant. Photographs of the scene where the accident occurred together with plats of the track and surrounding buildings were exhibited as evidence.

ACTON PARK TO BE REBUILT

Meeting Held Tuesday—The Grounds Will Be Re-platted.

At the meeting of stockholders at Acton yesterday, a plan for the rebuilding of Acton park was presented and approved by the members.

By this plan the grounds will be replatted and lots will be 30x60 feet in size. These lots will be sold at $100 each, which can be paid in cash or installments at six per cent. interest.

Each purchaser will also be given a bond for $100, which will be payable in thirty years, and the financial affairs will be managed by the American Bond and Surety company of Indianapolis.

On these lots the owners can build cottages to suit themselves, and very probably cottages will be built by the Surety company to sell on the installment plan.

The trustees are requested to confer with the Surety company and a committee of five stockholders was appointed as a conference committee to act with the trustees to agree on the form of contract and determine on whether a reorganization of the present association would be advisable or not, and to report to a meeting of the association to be held on the grounds May 17th, at 1 o'clock.

Citizens' Meeting.

A meeting of the Improvement Association and of the citizens of Rushville in general will be held at the assembly room in the court house tomorrow (Thursday) night. The various committees will make their reports and other matters of interest will come up. All citizens of Rushville are requested to attend this meeting.

LOUSY STOCK Experiment Station Bulletin Contains Valuable Information to Farmers.

The Indiana experiment station at Purdue University has sent out a valuable bulletin on the treatment of lousy stock. The bulletin was prepared by Dr. R. A. Craig, veterinarian of the station. Dr. Craig very sensibly recommends that stock be given good care through the winter as a preventative measure. But in case animals become lousy, a one or two per cent. water solution of a tar disinfectant may be applied externally. The stables and sleeping quarters of animals should also be disinfected. In reply to an inquiry as to the advisability of giving sulphur to animals, he says that a small quantity of sulphur may be given internally without harm, and neither will it do any good. It is effective, however, when used externally, and four ounces may be added to every gallon of tar disinfectant with increased effectiveness to the remedy.

SHELBYVILLE HAS TWO POLICE FORCES

New Council Went Into Office There Last Night—The Trouble.

The new Republican city council took office at Shelbyville last night without any question as to the legality of the proceedings being raised. A squabble arose, however, over the appointment of policemen. Mayor Vannoy appointed a set of men, believing that he had the power and the new council, under a similar impression, did the same thing. The council's force was sworn in Tuesday night and ordered to report for duty this evening. Marshal Marsh was notified to collect all badges, etc., now in the hands of the old police at 9 o'clock this morning.

The other faction of the police wrangle headed by Mayor Vannoy have instructed the members of the mayor's police force to meet today to be reinstated. All of the present members met and they expect to serve until ordered by Mayor Vannoy to do otherwise.

TWO NEW CARS HERE FOR TRACTION LINE

Fourteen In All Ordered— Four Express Cars Coming.

Two new traction cars arrived last night from the Barney-Smith car company's shops, Dayton, O. The cars are practically the same as the ten now in use on the Rushville line except that they bear a lighter finish and some changes in minor detail. The cars will be used either on the Connersville or on the Greensburg line. They will be tried out on the Rushville line. The new cars are numbers 313 and 314.

Fourteen cars in all were ordered from the Barney-Smith company. Four of these are express cars, two of which are expected here soon. Two more passenger cars are on their way to this city and two more are being made at Dayton.

REVOLUTION WAS KILLED

Paris Passed May Day Without Change In Existing Order.

Central Portion of French Capital Took on the Appearance of a Siege.

Paris, May 2.—The long-dreaded May Day failed to bring the revolution which inflammatory journals predicted, but none the less it brought scenes of extreme violence. The labor districts, which thousands of troops controlled with difficulty and even central portions of Paris took on the appearance of a siege with regiments of infantry and cavalry camped about the Arc de Triomphe, the bourse, the Bank of France and the great railway station, while military sentinels paced before banks and private establishments. The main thoroughfares in the residential portion of Paris remained tranquil. In the west end, far removed from riotous scenes, people were, disposed to treat the events in the labor quarters as harmless effervescence. It was, however, much more than that. Throughout the afternoon dragons, republican guards and cuirassiers charged disorderly masses, sweeping the Place de la Republique and the broad Boulevard de Magenta. Toward nightfall cavalry charged with drawn swords and many persons were wounded on both sides. The manifestants overturned omnibuses and threw up hasty barricades. Over 1,000 arrests were made during the day.

At no time did the demonstration reach the magnitude of a revolt, but was rather a leaderless tumult, in which the serious labor element, struggling for a principle, was hopelessly confused with violent agitators, anarchists, revolutionists, roughs and a large number of the curious. The workmen never succeeded in forming a procession or even in assembling more than scattered bands. Their chief action was a reunion of several thousands in the Labor Exchange, at which a resolution was adopted not to return to work until the eight-hour day shall have been accorded.

The worst hour of the day was toward 5 o'clock last evening, when the police practically lost control and were compelled to rely on the mounted troops. The latter, forming in lines twenty yards across and fifteen yards apart, swept around the Place de la Republique, driving the disorderly crowds into the surrounding streets. Most of the mob sought refuge in the Boulevard de Magenta and at the Quai de Valmy, which became centers of disorders. Here trumpets sounded repeated commands to disperse and the cavalry galloped into the crowds, tramping and injuring many. A body of foot-guards became surrounded by manifestants and was rescued with difficulty by cavalry with drawn swords. Here a considerable number were wounded. By 6 o'clock calm had been measurably restored and most of the troops returned to their barracks.

Throughout the disorders the authorities succeeded in executing their original plan of holding the disturbers strictly within the limits of the labor districts and not permitting them to press toward the wealthy commercial and residential sections.

The temper of the workmen today is threatening. They claim that the police acted brutally and cite many incidents of innocent people being beaten and arrested. They declare that Monday was only the beginning of the movement.

Reports from the provinces show that there were violent demonstrations at Marseilles, Brest, Bordeaux, St. Etienne, Lyons and Rouen.

ODD FELLOWS DISTRICT DEPUTY HAS RESIGNED

F. E. Tingle, of Connersville, has resigned as District Deputy Grand Master of the Odd Fellows for this district and Simon Doenges has been appointed to fill the vacancy. Mr. Tingle, who has held the office for several years, resigns on account of a press of business which will not allow him to attend to the duties as he thinks they should be attended to.

SENIOR CLASS TO GIVE A DEBATE

Discussion of Interesting Subject to Take Place of Class Entertainment.

As an entertainment to raise funds with which to purchase a suitable class present to the high school, the Senior class of the local school will give a debate instead of a musical entertainment. This course was decided upon yesterday. Members of the Senior class will take part in the debate. The date has not yet been announced. The question to be discussed is "Resolved, That the execution of Charles I was justifiable." Myron Green, Gladstone Barrett and George Puntenev will have the affirmative and Frank Lyons, Allen Blackledge and Lawrence Root will have the negative.

GIVEN HEAVY FINE FOR INTOXICATION

"Bob" Whallon Fined and Sent to Jail After Trial in Mayor's Court.

"Bob" Whallon was convicted of public intoxication in Mayor Hall's court this afternoon and sentenced to jail for twenty days besides being fined $1 and costs. The witnesses in the case were Policeman Vansickle, A. L. Winship, Floyd Hogsett and John F. Joyce. Some of them testified that the defendant was guilty of inebriety. Whallon, while intoxicated, it is said, insisted on climbing the flag staff on the court house tower.

LOCAL BREVITIES

A large force of workmen is engaged in laying the switches on both sides of the new I. & C. freight depot, car barn site.

The Rush county teachers at college are taking teachers examinations there and sending their manuscripts to County Superintendent Headlee to be graded.

Greensburg Review: Councilman William Kirkpatrick came down from Rushville Monday morning and attended the last meeting of the present council Monday afternoon.

Three traction employees, named Clark, Ryan and Bidde were arrested last night by Policeman Vansickle and jailed on the charge of drunkenness. They were fined $1 and costs and floated by Mayor Hall this morning.

The burner in a radiator at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Thomas, on North Morgan street, set fire to the carpet about 4 o'clock this evening and burned a small hole in the floor. Master Edwin Watson, son of Congressman Watson, who lives across the street, turned in an alarm from box 43, corner Morgan and Seventh streets. Congressman Watson and others extinguished the blaze, however, before the department arrived. A large crowd was attracted to the Thomas home.

T. A. Craig, formerly professor of science in the local high school, has been offered unsolicited, the superintendency of the city schools at Zionsville, Ind. As yet he has not decided to accept. Mr. Craig was offered the superintendency of the Cedarville, O. schools last year, but decided to remain in Rushville. The offer is a high compliment to Mr. Craig, who is practically a new man in Indiana. He made an enviable record while a member of the local high school faculty. Members of the Zionsville school board were here recently looking into Mr. Craig's record.

PLENTY FRUIT THIS SEASON

Says W. E. Frick, Based on Reports Throughout Indiana.

Peaches are Showing an Abundance of Bloom—A Fine Crop of Cherries.

Mr. Frick, Secretary of the Indiana Horticultural Society, gives out the following cheering news based on reports from throughout the State:

"The prospects for a bountiful crop of all kinds of fruit indigenous to this State is indicated by the appearance of the bloom now just opening," said the secretary.

"Peaches, perhaps the most susceptible to injury from the cold, are showing an abundance of bloom, which almost always insures a crop, for the bloom is comparatively hardy and withstands hard frosts. Information from Brown and other southern counties is favorable for peaches. Pears, although showing full bloom, will be reduced in quantity because of the ravages of pear blight during the last two years. From 33 to 50 per cent. of the pear trees have been killed or destroyed.

"Cherries promise a fine crop; also some varieties of plums, the Japanese making the poorest showing.

"Strawberries wintered well and are showing up vigorously with fine bloom buds.

"Apples, the staple fruit crop of our State, promise well, and although winter varieties do not show an abundant blooming, there are indications of a good crop of fine apples if taken care of properly.

"Growers should know that the market is bare of apples and apple products, and good fruit will command good prices. Spray the trees and cultivate them and undoubtedly the growers will be well remunerated for their time and expense."

Jabez Smith and Daniel Kinney were appointed a committee on music, and Ab Denning, A. L. Riggs and George Conrad were chosen a committee on finance. Another meeting will be soon to perfect the arrangements.

Services will be held at the cemetery in the forenoon. The Memorial sermon will be preached by Rev. T. H. McConnell at the Presbyterian church Sunday morning, May 27th.

THE WILY MR. TAGGART

Tom's Gumshoe Brigade Slips Up on the Insurgents.

Indianapolis, May 2.—Temporarily at least, the plans of the anti-Taggart Democrats to oust the Democratic national chairman from his control of the state organization seem to have fallen by the wayside. For several weeks the story has been that the revolt would be started from the Second district at the congressional convention held there yesterday. It was understood, originally, that John W. Holtzman, the leader of the anti-Taggart forces, was to deliver the keynote address in favor of the reorganization. Instead of going to the convention, however, Holtzman sent a letter, advising the reorganization. The letter was a hot one and did not mince words in dealing with the present Democratic chairman. But the whole plan did not materialize, according to the reports brought to Indianapolis. Though the anti-Taggart crowd had been doing a great deal in the talking line, Taggart and his lieutenants, W. H. O'Brien and others, had been doing some gumshoe work in the district, with the result that when the time came to introduce the resolutions that were to launch the anti-Taggart movement, there was "nothing doing." The faction headed by Alvin Padgett, the Second district committeeman, saw that they were in the minority, and did not introduce the resolutions at all. So far as the formal records of the convention are concerned, therefore, there is no hint of possible disaffection in the Democratic ranks of the Second congressional district.

It is not expected that the opposition to Taggart will die out, however, in spite of this set-back to the plans formulated. Some of the leaders have gone too far to back down now, and it is to be expected that the fight will be taken up until the very time of the state convention. It now looks as if the upshot of the whole fight will be that the anti-Taggart forces will modify their demands so that they will go into the state convention asking, not for the reorganization of the present state committee, but looking toward the organization of the committee two years later, in accordance with the old methods that prevailed before 1894. Whatever is the outcome so far as it affects state politics, the fight is bound to have a serious effect in Marion county and Indianapolis. Recently the Democrats of this county have been making tentative efforts to get together. The two factions—Taggart and Holtzman—had seemingly agreed upon the selection of local officials to manage the coming campaign that would be acceptable to both sides, and the effort had even gone so far as to insure the nomination of an exceptionally strong ticket. Now, however, it looks as if the fight that has come between Holtzman and Taggart will puncture the proposed truce here in this county so full of holes that there will not be the slightest hope for Democratic success. It has been thought that the Republican ticket was weak and that a strong Democratic ticket, receiving the support of a united Democracy, could get enough Republican votes to make it successful next November. Now these hopes of the "faithful" seem to have been shattered, as it is doubtful if the two factions can be reconciled even for local purposes.

Indianapolis, and probably other towns over the state, are now getting the aftermath of the San Francisco earthquake. Every day refugees from the stricken city are pouring into the city, without money or friends, and in the position of public charges. Some of them have the address of people who have been in more than moderate circumstances, and it can be seen that the present experience is novel to them. "It is not so bad as one might imagine," said one man today, as he stood against the gates in the Union station, munching a sandwich that had been given him. "It showed all of us that, after all, people are pretty much alike, whether they be rich or poor. The external differences struck off, and the striking sameness of all classes could not be overlooked." The Indianapolis newspapers have taken up the problem of caring for the east-bound refugees, and are providing them with food.

NEWLANDS ACTS

Nevada Senator Interests a New York Syndicate In Stricken City.

COOL HUNDRED MILLION

Eastern Capitalists Will Supply This Sum to Aid in Rebuilding Portions of San Francisco.

Tenders of Assistance From Foreign Countries Will Be Received, Says
Local Committee.

San Francisco, May 2.—The first definite proposition for furnishing money on a large scale to San Francisco for the purpose of rebuilding some of the burned sections has been made public. It is announced that a syndicate of New York capitalists have agreed to advance $100,000,000. The news came in a telegram received by W. F. Herrin, chief counsel of the Southern Pacific, from United States Senator Newlands of Nevada, who had a large interest in the burned Palace hotel. Senator Newlands stated that he had submitted the plan to New York financiers and that they had virtually consented to supply the money on a bond and mortgage basis. The names of the New York people are not given. The offer is under discussion by the local finance committee.

It has been decided that the citizens' committee will accept all offers of aid from foreign countries. This decision was reached when a communication was received through Japanese official sources asking if the citizens would receive the contribution of 200,000 yen made by the emperor of Japan and declined by the United States government. The finance committee held that San Francisco being essentially a cosmopolitan city, it was obliged to care for many destitute foreigners and that it would be proper in these circumstances to accept all outside tenders of assistance.

The local money stringency has been somewhat relieved by the banks resuming business in a small measure through the branch United States mint. Well known depositors were given certified checks for small sums by the savings banks and business clients of commercial banks were accommodated if they so desired with sums not exceeding $500 each.

The subject of having a special session of the legislature called at an early day is being earnestly considered by the general committee. The calamity San Francisco has suffered will call for many changes in the California statutes and in the city charter in order to permit of new regulations in the matter of increasing indebtedness, making longer leases, etc., and Governor Pardee is urged to convene the legislature in extra session as early as possible.

The relief of the destitute is continued under the new system devised by Dr. Devine of the National Red Cross and the local authorities, and it is believed that all unworthy and undeserving persons will within a few days be eliminated from the lists of those entitled to assistance.

Plans for establishing and maintaining a large free employment bureau have been perfected and will be speedily put into operation. Through this means it is hoped to afford another channel for assistance and to distinguish the able adult who is willing to work from the man who prefers to subsist on the generosity of others.

Considering the condition of the city an astonishing amount of building has been commenced. The new structures are all one-story frames, but they will be sufficient for a time to provide for the immediate needs of their builders.

James D. Phelan, chairman of the finance committee, has received a telegram from Secretary of War Taft, notifying him that only $780,000 remained out of the $2,500,000 appropriated by congress and that this sum would be expended for supplies, etc.

Santa Rosa's Loss.

Santa Rosa, Cal., May 2.—The 11 of dead and missing from the earthquake disaster has run up to a total of seventy-seven.

MIXED PICKLES

Here's a Day's Job Congress Cannot Be Proud Of.

Washington, May 2.—By a vote of 153 to 58 the house decided to continue distribution of flower and garden seeds. Many of the items in the agriculture bill broadening the scope of the bureau of chemistry and Dr. Wiley's department were eliminated on points of order, particularly those relating to the adulteration of food, condiments, drugs and beverages. Considerable progress was made on the bill after the free seed proposition was out of the way, and the bill will be completed today.

A Stickler for Red Tape.

The proceedings in the senate included an extended discussion of the railroad rate bill by Mr. Daniel, an explanation of the status of the appropriation for the relief of the earthquake sufferers of California by Mr. Allison, and a controversy among several senators as to the propriety of adopting without referring to a committee a resolution tendering the thanks of congress to General Horace Porter for his services in rescuing the body of John Paul Jones from its long last resting place in Paris. In the last mentioned proceeding Mr. Aldrich opposed action by the senate in advance of committee consideration and succeeded in having the measure referred to the committee on foreign relations.

LOOKS CONCLUSIVE

Count Witte's Resignation Now All but Confirmed.

St. Petersburg, May 2.—Absolute confirmation of the reported retirement of Premier Witte, which has been the sole topic of conversation in political circles, is still lacking; but in St. Petersburg only a few skeptics, who have heard the cry of wolf with reference to the premier's resignation too often, express doubt that the once powerful premier has surrendered the reins. Count Witte himself is as silent as the Sphinx on this subject. A strong intimation was given that the acceptance of Count Witte's resignation will not be announced until after the convocation of the national parliament; and the plausible theory was advanced by people at court that Count Witte's dismissal is not a move in the direction of reaction, but really is due to the desire on the part of Emperor Nicholas to put himself in line with the result of the elections, and that his purpose is to reorganize the cabinet to meet the new conditions by the inclusion of some constitutional democratic ministers, though the leadership of the ministry will rest in the hands of a man of the emperor's own choice.

Lake Boats Tied Up.
Cleveland, O., May 2.—There was no visible change in the marine situation caused by the strike of longshoremen and allied bodies which has resulted in a tie-up of lake freight carrying. Partially unloaded boats are tied up at the docks, and these, it is stated, will be left untouched for the present, at least.

Getting Better Acquainted.

London, May 2.—King Alfonso of Spain and Princesses Ena and Henry of Battenberg arrived in London last evening, traveling in a motor car from Portsmouth. They were cordially greeted by the populace.

Fatal Quarry Accident.

Bedford, Ind., May 2.—William Helmburg, twenty-five years old, is dead from injuries received last night. He was crushed between two large stones at the Hoosier quarries, where he worked.

INDIANAPOLIS LETTER

Interesting News Matters Picked Up at the State Capital for This Paper.

[Special Correspondence.]

Governor Hanly is known around the statehouse as the hardest working chief executive that has been in office "within the memory of the oldest inhabitant."

As a rule the 9 o'clock hour prevails pretty generally as the time to go to work on state business, despite the fact that the law specifies 8 o'clock as the time that offices should be open. The letter of the law is pretty generally obeyed, but no real business is done usually before 9.

The law also specifically provides that the governor's office shall be open at 9 o'clock, one hour later than the other offices. Yet during the present administration the laws are reversed. The governor is about the first one down.

Governor Hanly usually reaches the office about 7:30, and Fred L. Gember, his private secretary, about the same time. From that time until 9 both are busy with the mail, opening reading, dictating answers—all kinds of answers to all kinds of letters. At 9 o'clock the doors of the reception room are thrown open, and the steady stream of callers starts to take up the greater part of the day.

With regard to visitors, the governor is very democratic. He will see everyone who calls. It often happens that he is engaged at the particular moment of the call, or that several others are before some one caller. But if the caller wishes to see the governor badly enough to remain for a while, his turn always comes. Whether it be a politician who wants to "talk over conditions," a state officer, the old apple woman, or a father after a pardon for his son, all have the opportunity to see the chief executive, if they but bide their time.

Another point that is said to characterize Governor Hanly and his methods is his close attention to the detail of the office. The matter of granting a requisition receives his personal attention. Time has been that he held up pending state business for two days in order to consider the justice of requisition papers that have been brought for his approval.

Very few of the letters addressed to him are answered by his secretary. He insists upon doing that himself, so that he may be sure exactly the right point has been made in the reply. Even to the extent of making personal signatures on the hundreds of state papers, commissions, or requisitions that come before him, he is careful in his detail work. Probably not since the days of simple routine, years ago, have there been so many county officers, justices of the peace, etc., who have attached to their commissions the personal signature of the governor of the state.

As another matter of detail: He attends almost every meeting of the many boards of which he is an ex-officio member. He can tell as much about the quality of land that has been bought for the Southeastern Hospital for the Insane as the members of the commission. Likewise he understands the problems that confronted the epileptic commission. He has at his fingers' ends the details of the plans for the new Industrial School for Girls, is acquainted with the working details of the different state offices, and, in a word, keeps his fingers upon the complex and difficult problem of running such an enormous business as is required for a state that numbers two and a half million people.

A Richmond paper says of Rev. Z. T. Sweeney, the state fish and game commissioner:

"The Rev. Z. T. Sweeney of Columbus, Ind., who is filling the pulpit of the Vermont avenue Christian church in this city during the absence of the regular pastor, is drawing large crowds out to hear him each Sunday. Mr. Sweeney holds the office of state fish commissioner in Indiana, and is a man of versatility. He is not only a minister of the Gospel, but has had an extensive political career. At one time he was consul general at Constantinople, where he acquired a perfect understanding of the Turks and their customs. As a pulpit orator he has a forcible and unique style of oratory that charms his audiences."

State Statistician Joseph H. Stubbs has prepared a document under the head of "County Administration," which contains an exhaustive array of figures telling of the financial affairs of the several counties of Indiana. In the report the gross indebtedness of the various counties is shown for the year 1905. But sixteen of the ninety-two counties are shown to be without indebtedness. Of the seventy-six other counties the gross indebtedness is shown by the report to range from $523.28 for Bartholomew county to $1,490,463.11 for Marion county.

All of the congressional districts except the Third and Fourth have now nominated Republican candidates for congress. The list contains the names of many brilliant citizens of Indiana, as follows:

- 1st—John H. Foster, Evansville.
- 2nd—John C. Chaney, Sullivan.
- 5th—Elias S. Holliday, Brazil.
- 6th—James E. Watson, Rushville.
- 7th—Jesse Overstreet, Indianapolis.
- 9th—George W. Cromer, Muncie.
- 10th—Charles B. Landis, Delphi.
- 10th—E. D. Crumpacker, Valparaiso.
- 11th—Frederick Landis, Logansport.
- 12th—C. C. Gilhams, Lagrange.
- 13th—A. L. Brick, South Bend.

THE STATE PRESS

Good Advice for All Parties.

(Hamilton County News.)
Joe Cannon gave Republicans some good advice the other day. He said to use "Conservation in appropriations, care in legislation and circumspection in speeches."

Are Throwing Dirt.

(New Castle Courier.)
President Shonts reports that 10,000 men are now employed at digging the Panama canal; yet, to read some newspapers, the public might be led to believe that work has not been commenced.

All Hail to the Hadleys.

(Boswell Enterprise.)
Oscar Hadley for state treasurer, and C. C. Hadley for appellate judge on the state ticket speaks well for the Hadley family, and doesn't weaken the ticket. In three counties in the central part of the state there are 500 voters named Hadley and every one of them are Republicans.

Republicans Have Also Reduced State Debt.

(Laporte Herald.)
It makes the Democratic leaders angry to have Republicans pay debts, state or national; but somebody has to do it, and the Democratic leaders are slow to do such things. How much of the national debt was paid under the Cleveland administration from 1893 to 1897?

An Important Year Politically.

(Hammond Tribune.)
When we consider that this year is to witness the election of 386 members of congress, two dozen governors and legislatures which will elect over a dozen United States senators, it can hardly be called an "off year." It is a very important year politically.

Party of False Prophets.

(Marion Chronicle.)
The present fiscal year will close with a surplus of $10,000,000, against a deficit of $24,000,000 last year. Some one ought to carry the word to Alton B. Parker, who foretold a deficit of $80,000,000 for last year and $150,000,000 this year. Judge Parker as a prophet has not scored success.

Our Standing Army Useful.

(Rockville Republican.)
Federal soldiers have their uses in times of peace as well as in war. Who knows how much suffering would have been added to the horror of the San Francisco disaster had it not been for these guardians of the peace, who under an energetic and capable commander—Gen. Funston—were promptly on hand to protect persons and property.

Came to Teach the Americans.

(Monticello Herald.)
Maxim Gorky came over from Russia to preach socialism, but found himself handicapped by having a woman with him who was not his wife. The first obstacle he ran up against was being refused hotel accommodations. Foreign agitators should study American customs before they start across the water.

Party That Does Things for Laborers.

(Crawfordsville Journal.)
The laboring men have reason to be thankful to the Republican party of Indiana, for, as the state platform points out, in the last ten years Republican legislatures have passed more than thirty important laws safeguarding the interests of the wage-earner, not the least of which are the statute creating a labor commission for the settlement of disputes between employers and employees, the factory inspection law and the child labor law.

For California Sufferers.

(Richmond Palladium.)
Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, has issued an appeal to the members of his organization to give one day's wages to the sufferers of the San Francisco earthquake. If listened to the appeal will be instrumental in raising anywhere from five to eight millions of dollars and will afford a striking opportunity of the good a great organization may do in a worthy cause.

Are a Credit to Indiana.

(New Castle Courier.)
The ease with which the members of the Republican delegation now serving in congress from Indiana have been able to secure re-nomination this year is not so much indicative of their personal popularity in their respective districts, for none of them are of the "good fellow" variety, as proof of appreciation of the kind of service they have rendered to their constituents, the state and the nation.

Stars and Stripes Wouldn't Do for These.

(Fort Wayne News.)
The socialists at their state convention adopted the red flag as their emblem and will use it in their public demonstrations. The Star Spangled Banner does not meet the requirements of this delightful cult. The flag under which George Washington fought to freedom and which the matchless Lincoln preserved inviolate; under whose folds thousands of brave men marched to glorious death amid the cannon's roar, singing "The Union Forever"—such a banner is not good enough for Indiana socialists. But why, pray, adopt the flag of Herr Most, and Czolgosz, and the Chicago anarchists of Haymarket riot fame? If socialism and anarchy are antipodal in principle it would be well to avoid confusing them by a similarity of insignia.

RUSHVILLE REMINISCENCES

LETTER FROM J. E. EDEN.

Editor Republican:

Three quarters of a century since I first saw Rushville. Then I was eleven years old. The town, the men in business, their places of business, and the professional men—all seem as fresh in my mind as if it only was yesterday. What I have to say this time, will be rather scattering and uninteresting.

I will refer to some things that happened in the thirties, that will lead up to some things in the forties, some things perhaps that friend Carr overlooked when a boy. I didn't have the privileges that boys of this day have. I thought a judge must be a great man, but I have since changed my mind, having been elected judge myself. But to the point.

Some of the older citizens will remember Judge Test. He was a small, homely man, freckle-faced, peaked-nosed, sandy-complexioned. His very appearance gave one a contempt for judges. He married a daughter of the widow Davis, a sister of Nick and Milt Davis. He then made his home with his mother-in-law. They lived on the farm now owned by Daniel Brown, just west of the old Brown homestead.

Referring to the old court house with the brick floor. There was a very important case being tried. Raridon, of Centerville, was interested in the case, and was walking back and forth on the brick floor. Judge Test called on him to walk lightly. Raridon's reply was, "I can't walk light; I am a heavy man."

In the early days the law was to elect two associate judges to sit with the presiding judge. Rush county usually elected two farmers.

Friend Carr, in writing up the fights and drunks of the early days, he left out one feature. If a man was caught on the streets after night, the boys roped him, using a long rope, and with a lot of boys at each end, they soon had the victim in condition to go to the river. When they got through with him, he was "sober enough to go home."

Speaking of Alexander Brown as a tavern keeper on Main and Second streets; he was also a squire. Once being criticized for a decision he made, he gave as a reason, "I had to do that to save the cost."

Going back to the old log jail: I once saw a man in there for debt. I will not give the name, as he has prominent relations in Rushville. Suppose they would put people in jail now that don't pay their debts? The jails would not be big enough to hold them all.

Back in the thirties it cost twenty-five cents postage to send a letter 150 miles, to be paid at the end of the route. Such a thing as a postage stamp had never been thought of. If at the present time it took the price of two bushels of corn, a bushel of wheat, or eight dozen eggs to pay the postage on a letter, there would not be so many written.

In 1833 or 1834 there was a barbecue held in the wood below the old grave yard on the Fourth of July. They had a cannon and ten or twelve Revolutionary soldiers on the platform. The Washingtonians, a temperance organization, had a barbecue in the same woods on the Fourth of July in the early forties. Joe Robinson, of Greensburg, a prominent orator of that day, was the principal speaker.

I will relate one of his anecdotes. In the early days, everybody went to the court house to vote. The candidates were sitting in the room, and the voter called out the man he wanted to vote for. Joe said there was a barrel no tap, and they all took some before they voted. Then sometimes the crowd had to wait their turn. One candidate called out, "tap it at both ends." One of the voters got so full he forgot his man's name. "I am for tap it at both ends."

Mr. Carr's description of the rise and fall of the old flat bar railroad was a very interesting history. I knew all of the officers of the first crew. Speaking of Father Havens, calls me back to the many pleasant evenings spent on the camp grounds at the Cowger Chapel. Father Havens in his prime of life had no superior, and but few equals in the pulpit. He didn't need a police force to keep order. I have seen him leave the pulpit more than once to settle disturbances. He was quick and willing—physically and mentally—and the boys knew it.

He had two sons that were preachers—Landy and George. He had one daughter that inherited his talent. I may refer to her later.

In those days the whole congregation joined in the religious services. How different today!

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Mauzy are not as old as they think they are. If he picked out his wife when she was carrying a flag that said, "Whig husband or none." He didn't do that in 1840. There were no such flags carried in that campaign. It may refer to some of the ladies of 1844 that carried banners that said, "Whig husbands or none." The boys, in speaking of that great Buckeye campaign, draw largely on their imagination. They talk about following the band of music. Such a thing as a band of music had never been heard in Rushville in 1840.

Government Receipts and Expenditures for the Past Month.

Washington, May 2.—The monthly comparative statement of the government receipts and expenditures shows that for the month of April the total receipts were $45,092,367 and the expenditures $47,025,108, leaving a deficit for the month of nearly $2,000,000. The deficit for the month of April last year was over $9,000,000.

The receipts from customs for April was $23,461,329, an increase over April, 1905, of $3,460,000; from internal revenue $19,083,152, an increase of $1,783,000; from miscellaneous sources $2,528,384. The expenditures for April, 1906, show a falling off over April last year of nearly $2,000,000. For the ten months of the present fiscal year the receipts exceeded the expenditures $4,020,566, as against a deficit on May 1, 1905, of $35,689,557.

Pittsburgh, Pa., May 2.—Pat Dolan, president of District 5 of the United Mine Workers of America, has issued a statement in which he announces his withdrawal from the contest for the office to which Frank Feehan was elected by the miners after weeks of wrangling by delegates in convention, following Dolan's action at Indianapolis in voting with the operators and against the wishes of the miners. He says he withdraws in the interests of harmony.

A PLUCKY WOMAN

Mrs. Lindsay at Kokomo
Captures Burglar Lone Handed.

A MAN UNDER THE BED

Mr. Lindsay Was Away From Home
But His Trusty Shotgun Was Ready For Business.

And Brave Mrs. Lindsay, Not at All
Alarmed, Knew How to Use
The Weapon.

Kokomo, Ind., May 2.—Mrs. Earl Lindsay captured a thief here last night, having risen to a difficult situation with a spirit which earned her general praise. When Mrs. Lindsay returned home a customary peep under the bed was not necessary, for two stubby shoes protruding from under the bed furnished positive evidence of an intruder. Mr. Lindsay was absent, but his shotgun was present and loaded.

"You surrender," commanded Mr. Lindsay in the steadiest voice she could muster. The culprit came from his hiding-place, gazed squarely into two barrels of the formidable weapon held at Mrs. Lindsay's shoulder, and then bolted through an open window. Mrs. Lindsay promptly pursued and brought the fugitive to a standstill with a charge of fine shot in his back. The police at this juncture appeared and relieved the woman of her prisoner. He was identified as James Wilson, said to be wanted in several Indiana towns for burglary.

FURNISHED A CLUE

Escaped Prisoner Had Made an Important Confession.

Richmond, Ind., May 2.—It develops that John A. Locke, a noted prisoner who made a sensational escape from jail here a few days ago, had made a confession implicating eighteen employees of the Big Four railroad in wholesale freight robberies. The robberies committed extended over a period of several months and were mostly committed at various points in Illinois. Eleven indictments have been returned against the men implicated in Coles county, Ill. The property taken and disposed of aggregated several thousands of dollars. The Big Four will endeavor to locate Locke in order to use him as a witness.

Eacock Will Appeal.

Lafayette, Ind., May 2.—It is the understanding that an appeal in the Joseph Eacock blackmailing case, in which Eacock has been convicted and sent to prison, will be taken to the supreme court on the ground that the letter of the law was not observed in drawing the grand jury which returned the indictment against him. The law requires that the prosecutor sign the order calling the grand jury together, that the clerk certify the venire is correct. In looking through the 1905 records Mr. Eacock's attorneys found that no signatures were attached in the order book. They used this discovery in their argument in arrest of judgment just before Eacock was sentenced, but the court ruled that the question was not properly raised at that time.

Caught Him Just in Time.

Terre Haute, Ind., May 2.—Eric Solomon, aged seventy, who was nabbed by a detective just in time to prevent him cutting a braid of hair from the head of fourteen-year-old Minnie Armstrong while she was in the crowd at the circus entrance, was fined $300 and sentenced to six months in jail. He admitted that twenty-five years ago he was convicted of a like offense. At his room several braids of hair decorated the walls. He said they were given to him long ago, and they look as if they had not been freshly clipped.

Votra Now Under Bond.

Peru, Ind., May 2.—Jerry Votra, a half-breed Miami Indian, is under $500 bond for appearance in court, for his connection with the death of Henry Kiser a few weeks ago. The two men were engaged in a fist fight when Votra knocked Kiser down. The latter's head struck the pavement and three days later he died from hemorrhages of the brain. Votra when he learned of Kiser's death, escaped, but a deputy sheriff caught him this week at his home southwest of the city.

Second District Democrats.

Washington, Ind., May 2.—Cyrus E. Davis of Bloomfield was nominated on the first ballot as a candidate for congress on the Democratic ticket at the Second district convention here yesterday. The names of C. W. Wellman of Sullivan, W. N. Matthews of Bedford, and Royal E. Purcell of Vincennes were also presented for nomination, but Davis was an easy winner. The convention was largely attended and in all the deliberations the utmost harmony prevailed.

A Dangerous Resting Place.

Auburn, Ind., May 2.—William Metcalf, unmarried, of St. Joseph, this county, was killed by a Baltimore & Ohio railway passenger train, the engineer reporting that Metcalf was sitting on the track at the time the accident took place.

Pine-ules contain neither sugar nor alcohol—just gums and resins obtained from our own native pine forests, combined with other well known bladder, kidney, blood and backache remedies. One of the prettiest spring church weddings that has been held in this city for years was that at St. Mary's Catholic church this morning, when at 8 o'clock Miss Mary Gilligan, the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Gilligan, was united in marriage to Mr. Carl O'Neill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael O'Neill.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Father Rowan, and music was furnished by the church choir. Miss Nora Moran sang "Ave Marie." The altar was beautifully decorated with flowers. The church was crowded with friends of the bride and groom. The bride was beautifully gowned in white, with a white crepe veil and carried a bouquet of bride's roses. The groom was attired in the conventional black. Miss Katherine McKee and Henry O'Neill were the attendants. Little Miss Coletta McNamara was flower girl. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. O'Neill are two of Rushville's most popular young people. Both are widely known and each has a large circle of friends with whom the Republican joins in extending congratulations and best wishes for a happy and prosperous wedded life.
